Nyxoah Reports Fourth Quarter and Full Year 2025 Financial and Operating Results

*U.S. Commercialization Off to a Strong Start in First Full Quarter of Sales
Foundation Established to Drive Significant Growth in 2026*

Mont-Saint-Guibert, Belgium – March 19, 2026, 9:10pm CET / 4:10 pm ET – Nyxoah SA (Euronext Brussels/Nasdaq: NYXH) (“Nyxoah” or the “Company”), a medical technology company focused on the development and commercialization of innovative solutions to treat Obstructive Sleep Apnea (OSA), today reported financial and operating results for the fourth quarter and full year of 2025.

Recent Financial and Operating Highlights

- Fourth quarter gross revenue of €6.3 million, resulting in net revenue of €5.6 million, which represents 347% year-over-year growth, driven by the first full quarter of US commercialization
- Full year gross revenue of €11.0 million, resulting in net revenue of €10.0 million, which represents 122% year-over-year growth
- Fourth quarter gross margin of approximately 64%
- Cash, cash equivalents and financial assets of €48.0 million at December 31, 2025
- 145 surgeons trained and 57 accounts activated in the U.S. since commercial launch in August 2025
- Genio system consistently reimbursed by both commercial payors and Medicare to date
- Expanding manufacturing footprint to support global growth

“The fourth quarter marked our first full quarter of U.S. commercialization, and we are very pleased with the strong momentum we generated which led to us exceeding our revenue expectations for the quarter,” commented Olivier Taelman, Nyxoah’s Chief Executive Officer. “The feedback from surgeons and their patients has been positive and these procedures have been consistently reimbursed by major commercial payors and Medicare to date. We are excited about the opportunity in front of us and feel confident we will deliver significant growth going forward.”

U.S. Commercial Launch

The fourth quarter represented the first full quarter of commercial activity in the United States following FDA approval of the Genio® system in August 2025. The Company is executing its focused two-pronged launch strategy targeting high-volume hypoglossal nerve stimulation implanting centers while educating referral networks with sleep physicians managing moderate to severe OSA patients.

As of December 31, 2025:

- 145 surgeons had been trained on the Genio system
- 57 U.S. accounts had been activated
- Genio has been consistently reimbursed by many large commercial payors and Medicare to date

Revenue
Gross revenue for the fourth quarter of 2025 was €6.3 million before €0.7 million of deferred revenue mainly related to disposable patches which are delivered over time. Net revenue was €5.6 million compared to €1.3 million in the fourth quarter of 2024.
For the full year 2025, gross revenue was €11.0 million before €1.0 million of deferred revenue mainly related to disposable patches which are delivered over time. Net revenue was €10.0 million compared to €4.5 million in 2024. The increase in net revenue was primarily due to the launch of U.S. commercialization activities beginning in August 2025, post PMA approval.

Cost of Goods Sold
Cost of goods sold was €2.0 million for the three months ended December 31, 2025, resulting in gross profit of €3.6 million and a gross margin of approximately 64%, compared to cost of goods sold of €0.3 million and gross margin of 73% in the fourth quarter of 2024.

For the full year ended December 31, 2025, cost of goods sold was €3.7 million, resulting in gross profit of €6.3 million and a gross margin of approximately 63%, compared to cost of goods sold of €1.6 million and gross margin of 66% in 2024. The increase in cost of goods sold was due to a higher volume of Genio systems sold in 2025 while gross margin decreased slightly on a year over year basis due to initial ramp-up operational activities in advance of the Company's U.S. commercial launch.

Research and Development
Research and development expenses were €10.9 million for the fourth quarter of 2025, compared to €11.8 million for the fourth quarter of 2024.

For the full year ended December 31, 2025, research and development expenses were €42.8 million, compared to €34.3 million in 2024. The increase in research and development expenses was primarily driven by continued clinical expansion initiatives and ongoing product development activities.

Selling, General and Administrative
Selling, general and administrative expenses were €12.5 million for the fourth quarter of 2025, compared to €8.1 million for the fourth quarter of 2024.

For the full year ended December 31, 2025, selling, general and administrative expenses were €48.3 million, compared to €28.5 million in 2024. The increase was primarily driven by the build-out of the Company's U.S. commercial organization, including sales, marketing, and market access functions.

Operating Loss
Total operating loss for the fourth quarter of 2025 was €18.6 million, compared to €18.3 million in the fourth quarter of 2024.

For the full year ended December 31, 2025, total operating loss was €83.5 million, compared to €58.8 million in 2024. The increase reflects the planned acceleration of U.S. commercialization investments, continued clinical expansion initiatives and ongoing product development activities.

Cash Position
Cash, cash equivalents and financial assets amounted to €48.0 million at December 31, 2025.

- Revenue Guidance
- We expect U.S. net revenue for the first quarter of 2026 to grow by approximately 25% over the fourth quarter of 2025 and expect net revenue for the second quarter of 2026 to grow by approximately 25% over the first quarter of 2026.
 - International revenue is expected to follow a typical seasonal pattern.

About Nyxoah
Nyxoah is a medical technology company focused on the development and commercialization of innovative solutions to treat OSA. Nyxoah's lead solution is the Genio system, a patient-centered, leadless and battery-free hypoglossal neurostimulation therapy for OSA, the world's most common sleep disordered breathing condition that is associated with increased mortality risk and cardiovascular comorbidities. Nyxoah is driven by the vision that OSA patients should enjoy restful nights and feel enabled to live their life to its fullest.

Following the successful completion of the BLAST OSA study, the Genio system received its European CE Mark in 2019. Nyxoah completed two successful IPOs: on Euronext Brussels in September 2020 and NASDAQ in July 2021. Following the positive outcomes of the BETTER SLEEP study, Nyxoah received CE mark approval for the expansion of its therapeutic indications to Complete Concentric Collapse (CCC) patients, currently contraindicated in competitors' therapy. Additionally, the Company announced positive outcomes from the DREAM IDE pivotal study and receipt of approval from the FDA for a subset of adult patients with moderate to severe OSA with an AHI of greater than or equal to 15 and less than or equal to 65.
